

2nd Croatian Symposium on invasive species – with international participation

Zagreb, Croatia, 21 – 22 November 2016

Organised by
Croatian Ecological Society; Faculty of Science, University of Zagreb
Croatian Forest Research Institute; Public Institution Maksimir

TOPIC & BACKGROUND

When we have organised the “1st Croatian Symposium on invasive species” our main idea was to gather experts dealing with as many different aspects of invasive species as possible. We were very satisfied with the outcome. This year we want to continue with this, attracting more international participants, having in mind that only proper way to deal with this problem is to exchange our knowledge, and to act together. We extended the duration of Symposium on two days, in order to be able to accommodate more oral presentations. Time of year remained the same, enabling presentation of the most recent collected data.

KEYNOTE SPEAKERS

With great pleasure we can announce two esteemed keynote speakers:
Ingolf Kühn (Martin Luther University, UFZ, Halle, DE)
Franz Essl (University of Wien, AT)

PRESENTATIONS

We invite you to submit your abstract for oral or poster presentation, on any topic dealing with invasive species. For details on abstract formatting and submission, please consult the Symposium web pages. <http://www.ekolosko-drustvo.hr/2HSIV-2CSIS.html>
